

Welcome back!

We hope you are settling in well to the Autumn Term and had a restful summer break!

This is the first of our monthly newsletters with information about what's on offer and hints and tips to support you and your pupils on their reading journey.

You can contact us through by email: Englishhub@lapsw.org.

Our Top Tips for Reception

Make sure you are assessing the children informally each day. Children who don't remember all the sounds taught so far need immediate intervention to rapidly close the gap.

Keep in mind:

Who can already orally blend?

Did you know?

We are now able to offer funding and support to any school!

You will receive a visit from a member of our friendly audit team who will work with your reading leader for the morning (paying you £100 to book a supply teacher) and offer you advice on the next steps for the school and an offer of funding.
